

NEW FAMILY ACTIVITY AREA

IN MUSEUM OF EDINBURGH HUNTLY HOUSE 142 CANONGATE ROYAL MILE EDINBURGH EH8 8DD

City of Edinburgh Museums and Galleries invite you to visit our new hands-on Family Activity Area in Museum of Edinburgh, on the historic Royal Mile. Visits are FREE. Also sample our imaginative workshop programme for families.

The home of the Museum of Edinburgh is picturesque Huntly House, which faces on to the Canongate and dates from the 16th century. The Museum of Edinburgh is home to important collections relating to the history of Edinburgh, from prehistoric times to the present day.

The new activity area acts as a base from which you can explore the rest of the museum. In our new area, you can do the following.

LEARN ABOUT THE HISTORY OF EDINBURGH, FROM PREHISTORIC TIMES TO THE PRESENT DAY

Explore endless art activities. For example you can build and decorate an Edinburgh Old Town Tenement, make 18th and 19th century figures in historical clothes, make beautiful stained glass pictures, find objects and draw details on our detail quest-sheets. Experience our wonderful variety of art materials and texture baskets.

Spend time looking at our replica objects. Handle them and learn about what life was like in the 18th and 19th centuries

LEARN ABOUT 'OLD' AND 'NEW' EDINBURGH

► Have fun

Have fun dressing up in our varied and numerous quality historical replica costumes. For example, dress up as an 18th century lady and her maid, as an 18th century working woman or as James Forsyth, an 18th century Shoemaker.

► Relax

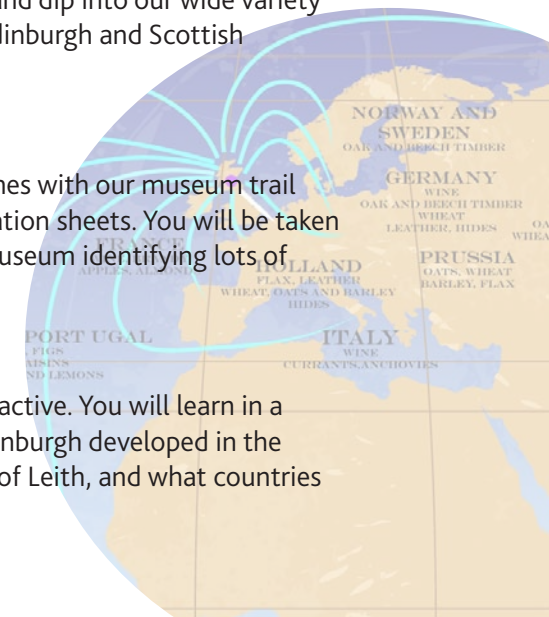

Relax in our library corner, and dip into our wide variety of reference books about Edinburgh and Scottish History.

► Play

Play at being Sherlock Holmes with our museum trail sheets, and object identification sheets. You will be taken on a journey through the museum identifying lots of fascinating objects.

► Explore

Explore our trade map interactive. You will learn in a very fun way about how Edinburgh developed in the 18th century from the port of Leith, and what countries Edinburgh traded with.
